

Ripple of Light Bereavement Resource Center, LLC

Equipping professionals and organizations for impactful connections with bereaved persons

Customizable Professional Development Opportunities

Below is a list of customizable professional development topics for consideration in advancing practitioners knowledge and skills in death, dying, and bereavement practice. The interactive, experiential content is deliverable virtually in presentation, workshop, or seminar formats. Should training subject needs exist beyond this list, please contact the Bereavement Resource Center directly to discuss in further detail (julie@rolbereavementresourcecenter.com).

- Anticipatory and disenfranchised grief
- Bereavement experience including: older adult, spousal, sibling, adult child, grandparent, friend, co-worker
- Bereavement following a sudden death
- Bereavement program development
- Caring for the professional
- Culturally, racially, and ethnically diverse bereavement practices
- Early and contemporary grief theories
- Facilitating difficult conversations with patients/clients
- Grief and the brain
- Grieving family
- Grief literacy
- Interprofessional practice in end-of-life/bereavement care settings
- Loss, grief, and mourning during adulthood
- Memorialization and bereavement rituals
- Spirituality and bereavement across the adult lifespan